

MY OPINION ON THIS ELECTION AS A 16-YEAR-OLD

Dear Voter:

My name is Justin Hicks. I am sixteen years old, attend Glen Este, and have lived in Union Township my whole life. This election is the first time I have truly been interested in politics. Early in 2016, I got interested in Donald Trump and what he wanted to do with our country. I also looked at Hillary Clinton and saw what she wants to do and had already done to our country. SPOILER, it's not good. If I was old enough to vote, I would vote for Trump because I think he is going to put America back onto the right track.

I know that Donald Trump isn't a perfect person, but I can see him learning, growing and applying his business skills in ways our country really needs:

- He is going to bring business and jobs back to America, which will, in turn, boost our economy to a much better place than it is now.
- The insiders fear Trump because he will clean up the corruption and the general misguidance that the government has right now.
- This country needs to stop illegal immigration and drugs like heroin flowing across the border. Trump is exactly what this country needs to do that.
- The US has terrible trade deals right now and Trump, with his business knowledge, will fix America's bad trade deals.
- One of my biggest reasons for liking Trump is that he is not a lemming to the system, he is an outsider. The government hasn't had the chance to brainwash Trump into becoming an establishment shill.

I am conservative, and support Republicans, for a few simple reasons:

- Republicans want to bring back the real meaning of the Constitution - the constitution the way our founding fathers intended.
- I am pro-life, I feel that life is sacred and we all have a right to life which is one of the main points of the constitution (because our Creator gave us that right).
- Republicans are pro Second Amendment because it is stated in the Constitution that we have the right to bear arms.
- Republicans don't want the government's hand in everybody's business. The government should be for the people and not control the people.

So, while I cannot vote yet, I care and many of my friends care. We want to live in a free America that is strong and honest and fair. I respect however you vote and appreciate that you took the time to read my views. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Justin Hicks
